

THE WITCHES' BREW

VOLUME 4, ISSUE 1

SEPTEMBER 2006

SPECIAL POINTS OF INTEREST:

NEW...

Classified
Section

RETURN OF...

The Opinionator

INSIDE THIS ISSUE:

Opinionator 2

Classifieds 2

Welcome Back by Andy Amodio

I promise no cheesy late night television jokes this year. Well maybe a few, but I can't help it.

Anyway, here we are, another year at Greenwich. For some that is a good thing; for others, not so much. I could go on some rant about how great it is to be back in school, but you would all know I am probably not telling the truth. However, this year I am honestly looking forward to school. That may, or may not, have something to do with the fact that I'm in my senior year.

I am deviating from my point, which was to say I hope everyone had a great summer and welcome back!

Welcome Mr. Hughes by Beth Kirtley

We would like to welcome Mr. Kenneth Hughes, our new assistant principal. Mr. Hughes has recently taught French for the past six years at Lake George Junior/Senior High School. Besides teaching French, Mr. Hughes coached Modified Boys Soccer for two years. He also sings in a Barbershop Quartet and enjoys musical theater. As for his move to Greenwich, he says that he enjoys the town very much. He thinks that it is quite similar to Lake George and believes it is a nice place to raise his one year old daughter.

Although he may no longer ask, "comment allez-vous" ("How are you?" in French), Mr. Hughes seems like the type of administrator who is generally interested in the students' well being. Just take a look at his school website: <http://www.greenwichcsd.org/hs/khughes/index.htm>.

Throughout the year you can be sure to catch Mr. Hughes at many of our athletic, academic, or extra-curricular activities. I know that we are all glad to have Mr. Hughes here as part of our school and community.

"Welcome" and "Good Luck," Mr. Hughes!

Opinionator

The Shocking Return!

I know what you all must be thinking. You all must be shocked that I haven't been chased by an angry mob and beaten with shoes by now.

This summer was an interesting one for politics and culture. So, I am faced with the decision to choose between them. I have always been sort of lazy, so I'll just go with both instead of racking my brain on this. It is the summer still after all.

First of all--the whole Israel-Hezbollah thing. Yes, I know this is probably boring for a lot of people, but it is all I have really. In my opinion, we might just be seeing the start of World War III in this little battle. Although it has died down recently, with how tense the Middle East is it will only take a small spark to get things going. Knowing how trigger happy President Bush is, he might just go after Iran--after all they are evil! Then it would just turn into a huge mess which would be a hundred times worse than Iraq, and I am not even going to get started on Iraq.

So, this is the start of another year of the Opinionator. It should be a very long and fun year. To my readers, I promise to try to write less boring political stuff. But hey, it's what I know and as long as George Bush is President, I'm sure I'll have plenty to write about. That is just my opinion.

Classifieds

Help Wanted:

The Witches' Brew is looking for sports writers, a horoscope writer, and club / activity writers. Anyone with story ideas or an interest in contributing to the newspaper, see Andy Amodio, Beth Kirtley or Ms. Lee.

LOOK FOR FUTURE CLASSIFIEDS.

If you have an item to sell and would like us to list it in the next issue, see Ms. Lee.

Next newspaper meeting is scheduled for Wednesday,
September 13
Room 203

Please join us and contribute to your school newspaper!

Letter from the Editor

We are at the dawn of another new school year. Personally this is my last year here, so I hope to make it the best. I would also like to make this the best year that the newspaper has ever had. Let's face the truth... a lot of people do not really want to be in school right now. For most, summer flew by too quickly. Since we are here anyway, why not do something about it and have some fun. I know I will.

-Andy Amodio

A SPECIAL THANKS TO...

Andy Amodio and Beth Kirtley for their dedication in working over the summer to bring you the first issue..

We're on the web!

<http://www.greenwichcsd.org/hs/schoolnews/>