Happy New Year!

I hope that you all had a wonderful holiday break! New Year's is always amazing to me, across borders and cultures, people around the planet join to honor the past and embrace the future. It's a new year and a new beginning for all of our students. Let's get ourselves on track and organized so that we may do our best work!

Curriculum Notes

Mrs. Rasmussen will focus on ancient China in social studies. In ELA I will explore punctuating dialog and I will work with students on making inferences. Math students will cover rates, ratios and proportions. In health students will be discussing goal setting. In science Mrs. Mugits will begin her Conserving Resources unit and will be discussing where materials and sources of energy that people use come from. Students will write a persuasive essay combining science & ELA skills.
