

Biography Book Report Outline

Design a book jacket including the title of your book, the author, and your name.

Paragraph #1

Describe the person you read about. Include their place of birth and date.

Describe any marriages and children. Explain in at least two sentences why you chose this person to read about.

Paragraph #2 & #3

Give a summary of the most important events in the book, including the most important events of this person's life. Give specific details of what and where the events took place. Highlight the reasons why this person is important enough for their own biography. Have they affected history? Why are they important to history? What impact have they had on history?

Paragraph #4

Relate this person to a character you have read about, to another book, or to yourself. Explain the connection of the person to one of the above. Is there any connection between the person you read about and the "Woman in History" you studied?

Paragraph #5

Did you like this style of genre (book)? Explain if you liked or did not like this book and why. What did you learn about the person that you did or did not know before you read the book? Would you recommend this book to another student or adult? Explain why.

Remember: at least 5 sentences in each paragraph and 7 to 10 words in each sentence.
